@ ellie.carter@fba.org.au

Providing support for landholders by offering technical expertise and enabling on-ground implementation is a driving motivator for Ellie in her career.

Ellie is a passionate advocate for agriculture, highly aware of the importance of aligning grazing land management techniques with the interests of landholders to achieve sustainability in a productive way.

Ellie has seen firsthand the benefits of holistic approaches to agriculture and it is her ongoing hope to duplicate these models and systems in the Fitzroy region.
