

Sara Cue

Land Management Officer (Grazing)

☎ 07 4999 2800
@ sara.cue@fba.org.au

With over 25 years' experience in the agricultural industry, Sara has established a reputation as a committed and passionate advocate for the sector. Amongst her greatest strengths is her ability to establish and maintain relationships with stakeholders, bridging the divide between investors, policy makers and the land managers responsible for the adoption of best management practices on-ground.

Sara is a proficient communicator and possesses a sound understanding of the challenges faced by agricultural managers. Her high levels of engagement in rural communities ensure that she is a trusted source of information and advice. As an FBA Land Management Officer Sara enjoys being able to bring to the region events that meet the needs and interests of rural communities, providing opportunities for landholders to connect with experts, industry representatives and each other.
