Regional Agricultural Landcare Facilitator

☎ 07 4999 2842

@ vicki.horstman@fba.org.au

With over 20 years' experience in the agricultural industry, Vicki is extremely passionate about farming and sustainability. Vicki holds strong interests in soil health, water quality, pest management and other key matters impacting on Natural Resource Management.

Vicki is a skilled communicator, using her down to earth approach to develop long term relationships with landholders, community representatives, industry stakeholders and FBA delivery staff. As FBA's Regional Landcare Facilitator, Vicki fosters connections and identifies opportunities across the breadth of FBA's Region to build landholder and Landcare capacity and increase the uptake of sustainable agricultural practices.

Vicki undertakes high level landholder engagement, stakeholder management, and facilitates training and extension associated with the National Landcare Program.
